THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER BAILEOAD. We learn from the Dyersburg Gazette that the County Court of Dyer county will meet at noon to-day, for the purpose of considering the question of county aid to the Mississippi River Railroad. The opposition of Newberne and other points has been dispelled, and we learn that the some of the recent appointments, and cott & Co., Philadelphia. people of the whole county have become the wildest mannered who participated clamorous for the enterprise. The amount | in the debate were willing to admit that of appropriation asked for is, we believe, $175,000, which, with the aid from the other counties along the line, the private appointments were simply disgraceful, subscriptions and the State aid granted, is sufficient for its rapid construction. We hope the Dyer County Court will at this time be equal to the demands of the people they represent, and grant the ald was that of Cel. SENTER FOR ENFRANCHISEMENE.

Fellow-Citizens of the County of Sum ner: A sense of justice to you and of duty to myself has prompted me to appear before you to-day, I address you as fellow-citizens, for you are my fellowcitizens, and though now disfranchised and prevented from exercising the high privilege of free men at the palict-box. I say to you this infamous restriction shall no longer exist in Tennessee. [Applause] The hand-cuffs shall be struck from your free-born limbs. [Loud applanse] It has been said that " he who free, himself must strike the master General, was a mail agent with blow," and I propose to strike with you for a restoration of your equal right as citizens of our common country. Let son man in 1866. He attended the Philthe press and people demand equal and exact justice, and it shall be granted.

If these sentiments are in truth those of Gov. SENTER, he is in a position to accomplish the result promised. We see no reason to doubt that he really uttered them. We have been informed by those who know him, that he is altogether a different man from his predecessor, and is capable of sutertaining noble and just opinions. We also are informed that he has the manliness to redeem any pledges he niakes. All good men will approve and support him in this position.
